Woodbridge, VA— Belvoir Federal Credit Union has announced the winners of its 2008 scholarship competition. This year's scholarship essay had many High School senior's and college students answering a question about their goals for the future and how money plays an important part. This year's winners in the High School category were each awarded a $1,000.00 scholarship. The winners included Mr. Benjamin White from C. D. Hylton High School, who will be attending Virginia Tech in the fall; Ms. Alison Firich from Gar-Field Senior High School who will also be attending Virginia Tech; and Ms. Molly Andresakes from Woodbridge Senior High School will be attending James Madison University.

Ms. Lisa Nguyen, a double major in Biology and Psychology, a freshman at the University of Virginia, received the continuing student scholarship. She graduated from Fairfax High School in 2007.
