Woodbridge, VA— Belvoir Federal Credit Union celebrated National Credit Union Youth Week from April 19-25, 2009. Over 500 youth members made deposits during the week, surpassing the goal of 175 by over 200%. These youth members made over $513,000 in deposits during the week, shattering the goal of $20,000 by over 2,000%. Belvoir's goal of opening 35 new youth accounts was almost met.

National Credit Union Youth Week is sponsored by the Credit Union National Association (CUNA). The theme for this year's Youth Week was "The Magic of Savings". In conjunction with this theme, Belvoir gave out magic fortune teller balls to youth members making a deposit into their youth savings account.

In addition, Belvoir sponsored a Magic of Saving poster contest and awarded deposits in a youth certificate account to two students at Montclair Elementary School; one student at Woodbridge Middle School; and one student each at Woodbridge and Gar-Field Senior High Schools.

Winning entries can be viewed below.
