$4,000 in Scholarships Awarded to Belvoir Federal Members

Woodbridge, VA, May 18, 2011 — Belvoir Federal Credit Union and GEICO partnered together in 2011 to award $4,000 in scholarship funds to a graduating high school senior and a current college student.

Applicants were required to answer three questions relating to their knowledge of a credit union, the current issues facing financial institutions in today's economy, and a product or service they would create at a credit union. By asking these three questions, Belvoir Federal hoped to gain more insight into the Gen-X and Gen-Y mindset in addition to expanding the applicant's knowledge of credit unions.

The winners selected for the 2011 Belvoir Federal/GEICO Scholarships were Nicholas Johnston and Jhonathan Cabrera. The graduating high school senior scholarship was awarded to Nicholas who plans on attending Bryan College and major in Biology. The continuing education scholarship was awarded to Jhonathan Cabrera who is currently attending Northern Virginia Community College and majoring Business Administration.
