Belvoir Federal Celebrates Employee Appreciation Week

Woodbridge, VA, July 12, 2011 — Belvoir Federal Credit Union celebrated its 6th annual Employee Appreciation Week (EAW). The Belvoir Employee Appreciation & Morale Support (B.E.A.M.S.) committee, an internal group of employees promoting goodwill and boosting company morale, orchestrated daily events with a game show theme for all employees to partake in for an entire week.

The credit union displayed their thankfulness for each of their “internal” members, or employees, by surprising them with breakfast, lunch, an ice cream social, branded apparel, motivational notes, and personalized gifts. In addition to the weeklong give-a-ways, the B.E.A.M.S. committee also constructed games (such as: Are You Smarter Than A 5th Grader, Family Feud, Match Game, What’s My Line, Let’s Make A Deal, and Wheel of Fortune) for the employees to play each day which could win them a variety of prizes ranging from gift cards, movie passes, and days off with pay.

In keeping with Belvoir Federal’s family-oriented atmosphere, B.E.A.M.S. invited every employee and their family to join them for a Bowling Extravaganza where families enjoyed three hours of free bowling, lunch buffet, additional games for both adults and kids, and a prize raffle. The week concluded in the same jovial spirit in which it began and a message of gratitude was passed along to each employee in reflection of their daily efforts at Belvoir Federal Credit Union.
